

PURSuing OUR PATH TO FULL EQUALITY

Women's Equality Day Celebration

Keynote Speaker: Ms. Donna Boltz a certified leadership coach and the former garrison commander of Fort Richardson Army Post.

What: Women's Equality Day Celebration

When: August 26th 2009 11am-1pm

Where: UAA Gorsuch Commons room 107

Celebrate the victory of women's long struggle to take their place in the greatest achievement of this nation, Women's Right to Vote! The celebration format will be a professional networking opportunity for women from the public and private sector. Top female executives of federal, state and local government as well as non-governmental organizations and small business owners have offered to make themselves available (at each table) to share career strategies and take part in the exchange of information, tips, etc. Then sit back and enjoy as the keynote speaker shares an inspirational message given by one of Alaska's own, a courageous pioneer and hero. All for $28.00 and includes a catered lunch

For registration contact Precious Parsons at 271-5658

Lunch Menu Choices:

- PASTA PRIMAVERA: Fettuccini noodles with sautéed vegetables, sun-dried tomatoes and sauce and a tossed garden salad
- All Meals include coffee, ice tea, fresh baked rolls, and peach cobbler dessert.

Donna Boltz, Certified Leadership Coach, believes every leader can be a Perceptive Leader. Through nearly 25 years as an army leader of organizations ranging from small, highly specialized project teams to large, multi-disciplinary units stationed around the world, she knows first-hand the importance of continual leader development and growth. Donna understands how active and engaged learning of the mind, body and spirit contribute immeasurably to leader perceptiveness.

Observing that many contemporary "leader development" programs focus on "management" topics, Donna committed herself to designing a learning program specifically for the senior leader.

Donna's coaching programs are tailored to leaders ready to do the hard work of becoming Perceptive Leaders.

Donna specializes in energy management and life-balance work to open windows of awareness and doors of opportunity for her clients.
